PRISON BOOK PROGRAM
c/o LUCY PARSONS CENTER & BOOKSTORE
1306 HANCOCK ST, STE 100
QUINCY, MA 02169

Prison Book Program
www.prisonbookprogram.org

Prison Book Program gives books to individual prisoners in the United States -- we have been doing it since 1972. We are not a library and have no books for sale. All books and other reading materials are donated to you free-of-charge. Please feel free to share these books and the ideas in them.

PBP works to fill your book requests as quickly as possible. Sometimes, we receive such a large quantity of letters that your request may be delayed anywhere from 5 to 7 months. Please be patient with us.

PBP can rarely match specific requests for titles or authors, but we try to make the following book categories available:

- Dictionaries, Thesauruses, or Reference (please specify)
- GED and Education (Math, Science, Reading or Writing)
 - Let us know what grade level is the best fit for you (e.g., 1-12, college, professional)
- Health, Psychology, or Self-Improvement (various)
- Social Sciences (Political Science, Philosophy, Psychology)
- Foreign Languages (various, please specify)
- Ethnic Studies (Native or African American, Latino/a, etc.)
- History or (Auto)Biographies (various, please specify)
- Religious or Spiritual Studies (various, please specify)
- Sports or Hobbies (various)
- Fiction: classic, contemporary, fantasy, thriller, short stories, drama, poetry, or plays.

PBP rarely has the following books/topics: real estate, investments, small business, specific laws, almanacs, Spanish/English dictionaries, Wiccan spirituality, GLBT, large print (of any kind), westerns, or trade skills. Go ahead and ask us for any subject, even if it is not listed above. You might get lucky! Please provide us with different subjects to choose from. If you send us 3 options, we will most likely find a substitution and/or your 2nd or 3rd choice. If looking for a specific author, please provide the type of books they write.

HELP US TO HELP YOU:

- Print your FULL NAME, ID #, and ADDRESS in your letter and in the return address on the envelope. Please PRINT Clearly.
- Tell us the exact restrictions your facility places on your incoming book packages (for example: paperback only, hardcover okay, maximum #, new books only, newish or good condition ok, no dictionary, invoice required, prior approval needed, etc.).
- Stamps are welcome, but are not required.
- We do not offer any pen-pal services.
- We will only honor two book requests per person per year, because we have a limited budget.
- Only one dictionary per person will be honored.

Unfortunately, we do not send books or any other materials to: California, Illinois, Maryland (except Jessup, Cumberland, and Hagerstown), Michigan, Nevada, Texas, and certain individual prisons. We do not send books or materials to any jails.

WHO WAS LUCY PARSONS?

Lucy Parsons (1853 - 1942) was a radical American labor organizer, anarchist, and remembered as a powerful public speaker. She was born in Texas (likely as a slave) to the parents of Native American, African American, and Mexican ancestry. Because of her singular fight against social and economic oppression, Lucy led a controversial life. Lucy Parsons always kept a sharp eye on the social revolution that she was convinced was necessary to change what she saw as the glaring excesses of the oppressive capitalist system. (SOURCE: Wikipedia)

Lucy Parsons was a fearless revolutionary.

The legacy of Lucy is alive in the Boston area where, one can find the Lucy Parsons Center -- a bookstore and gathering place for a wide range of anarchists, political radicals, activists, and generally concerned citizens.
